- A) Flag
Description

- B) Logo

Description Explanation
of Logo:

Type

The distinctiveness of CCAM was achieved with this design. The definition was established with the usage of variations of the initial C representing Contact; C representing Centre; A representing Association; M representing Malaysia.

Fonts chosen for the organization name is a Calibri (Body) type font known. The choice of font as well as the display of text in the capital case is deliberate for one reason: to lighten the load of the overall design. Focus is now maintained on the initials, CCAM, and the Association name complements the logo in terms of information conveyed as well as by its design.

The approved colour for the logo is Blue, Red, and Yellow. The colours of the bubbles represent the colours of Malaysia.
